

Africa ELTA works to advance the English language teaching (ELT) profession in Africa by supporting teachers to improve their ELT pedagogical and research practices. This is achieved through encouraging and implementing the delivery of quality professional development activities, extending professional networking efforts with national and international associations and supporting and advocating for the interests of teachers of English to speakers of other languages and learners of English as an additional language or dialect at the national and international levels.

