

HUPE is the only ELT association in Croatia. We have been around for 28 years. In our work we try our best to help English teachers become even better and more successful in their work. Once a year we organize an international conference with speakers and presenters from all over the world. In addition to that, our members hold meetings in their local/regional branches during the year.

