

Your favourite website: any online dictionary

A gadget you can't live without: my mobile phone

Something you'd never throw away: my mobile phone again as it means "English in my pocket"

Who or what inspires you? My students

Useful teaching tool: the Internet

Your favourite lesson: one where all the language items dealt with arise from the students output

Your favourite bit about your talk: the one dealing with the inner dialogue that students have with themselves about their ability to learn the language, in what way they think their past experiences will affect their present learning, etc

A lesson you've learnt while teaching: connection student-teacher is the key to successful learning
