UNIVERSITY PRESS

Oxford University Press (OUP) has been operating in the Spanish textbook market for more than 25 years. As a department of the University of Oxford, it furthers the University's objective of excellence in research, scholarship, and education by publishing worldwide (in more than 50 countries).

OUP is a non-profit organization and profits are reinvested into academic research, and cultural sponsorship, which has converted OUP into the leading academic publisher in the fields of education, science and the arts.

Since it was first established in Spain, OUP has maintained a constant dialogue with the teaching community to understand and analyze the exact needs of both students and teachers. Today, OUP is the leading publisher in Spain for English language teaching and bilingual programmes (CLIL/AICOLE).
