

TESOL International Association advances the expertise of professionals who teach English to speakers of other languages in multilingual contexts worldwide. We accomplish this through professional learning, research, standards, & advocacy. Members of the TESOL Affiliate Network are independent associations providing English language educators with professional information and support within their geographic regions.

