

Your favourite website: Pinterest

A gadget you can't live without: My laptop

Something you'd never throw away: a good memory

Who or what inspires you? The valuable knowledge within my reach.

Useful teaching tool: My laptop

Your favourite lesson: "I like . . ." or The second conditional; any lesson where students can open up and share from within.

Your favourite bit about your talk: We should use anything available to motivate our students to reach their potential, and nothing less.

A lesson you've learnt while teaching: We can normally do better than we think we can.