

Mike Bridge

Your favourite website: There are too many to choose from and it varies but Youtube and TED.com are always high on the list

A gadget you can't live without: Tablet

Something you'd never throw away: My vinyl records

Who or what inspires you? My students

Useful teaching tool: Mini white boards

Your favourite lesson: Ones where the students get excited about and can see the improvement in their ability to communicate in English

Your favourite bit about your talk: The Salman Rushdie quote

A lesson you've learnt while teaching: Continue trying out new things in class but never forget the things you used to do that still work
