

Daniel Warchulski

Your favourite website: My favourite website is – youtube.

A gadget you can't live without: It would be difficult to imagine living without my smartphone.

Something you'd never throw away: A letter from someone special.

Who or what inspires you? Elon Musk is an inspiration. He is an innovator and truly concerned about the future well-being of humanity.

Useful teaching tool: The students themselves.

Your favourite lesson: Small group discussions about contemporary topics relevant to students' lives.

Your favourite bit about your talk: Motivating and promoting autonomy among learners (in East Asian EFL contexts).

A lesson you've learnt while teaching: Perhaps the most important lessons that I learned and that were reinforced through teaching for me are the importance of staying organized and being consistent fair.