

Jo Sintes

Your favourite website: I really don't have one! There are so many that come and go so I jump from several.

A gadget you can't live without: My blender...I love cooking so it makes life so easy

Something you'd never throw away: memories

Who or what inspires you? My children

Useful teaching tool: White board and marker.....

Your favourite lesson: one where you see you have left your mark.

Your favourite bit about your talk: How language can impact how our feedback is given and received

A lesson you've learnt while teaching: Ask questions - you can learn a lot about the others reality.
