

Nicholas John Franklin

Your favourite website: <http://www.shakespeareswords.com>

A gadget you can't live without: a kettle

Something you'd never throw away: a remark

Who or what inspires you? James

Useful teaching tool: euphony

Your favourite lesson: Matthew 10:34

Your favourite bit about your talk: the pub quiz at minute 14.

A lesson you've learnt while teaching: teaching is the best way to learn stuff.

What might we get out of your talk? I'll tell you how to become President of the USA, and how to be a better translator. You'll find out how loud the Big Bang was. We'll consider playground Social Darwinism and how a dachshund can make you a better English teacher. But above all, I'll provide you with a fresh way to view the language. Isn't that worth skipping Mass for?
