

Evolving ELT in a brave new world: new ways of supporting your learners

---

David Bradshaw (Cambridge English)

Abstract

For some time now we have been talking about 'new technologies' and their application in ELT, but are we really entering a brave new world? In this talk, we will look at some of the possibilities which digital products can offer to support both learners and teachers. We will also look ahead to possible new developments for the near future.

Biodata

David Bradshaw has worked full time for Cambridge English for 2½ years as Assessment Services Manager. Before that, he combined his role as a Cambridge English speaking examiner and team leader with his job as head of languages in various private bilingual schools and as a teacher trainer. He has delivered presentations in conferences in Spain and around Europe.
